IN TEMPE HIGH SCHOOL

The Matter Has For Some Time Been Under Consideration.

The discussion in yesterday's Republican by the Association of American Agricultural colleges and experiment stations in reference to the advisability of establishing agricultural departments in secondary schools, brings to mind the fact that Prof. Scudder, the up-to-date and progressive superintendent of our Union high school, has been negotiating with Dr. Clothier of the University of Arizona about securing his services for six weeks during the coming school term, to lecture the boys and girls on the science of agriculture. Prof. Clothier has about agreed to give his services free of charge for the time named, and will, if it is seen to be expedient and feasible to establish an agricultural department in this school. The citizens of Tempe should assist Prof. Scudder in this move for bettering the conditions of our farmer boys and girls.

day visiting Mrs. Hurst of Phoenix. Carter Knifeton, an employee of the asylum, came out Tuesday for a day's visit with his uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Glosbrenner. He remained until after supper, taking the cool evening for the return trip.

Mr. Gaylord has bought John Shawver's dairy cows.

Mrs. Asa Graham was a Phoenix visitor on Wednesday.

M. C. Glosbrenner was in Phoenix Wednesday and took dinner with his sister Mrs. Knifeton of that place.

Ollie Brooks was a guest of the Glosbrenner girls Sunday and on account of the rain had to extend her visit over night.

The Misses Mabel Green, Fannie Brooks, Nellie Brooks and Mary Doyle, started out Sunday afternoon for a horse-back ride through the Glendale country. The rain sent them home thoroughly soaked.

Otto and Abram Glosbrenner took their sisters, Emma and Estella, to Phoenix Friday for a visit with their aunts, Mrs. Knifeton and Mrs. Carak.

Mr. Glosbrenner has finished planting another patch of milo-maze on the National Orchard ranch. The first planted is almost ready to cut now.

Mr. Dille has installed a new pump at his place and bought a large water tank at the P. X. Nelson sale Tuesday.

Fannie Brooks drove to Phoenix Thursday for supplies. When she arrived she found her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brooks there looking for transportation to their home in Fowler, so Fannie brought them home. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and their daughters, Henrietta, Jennie Lee and Nettie, had been spending a few days in Prescott and had returned ahead of time so that there was no one there to meet them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps spent Tuesday evening visiting with Mr. and Mrs. S. N. McClure.

Mrs. Kile and daughter drove to Phoenix Wednesday afternoon. Her daughter, Miss Eunice, who is in ill-health was getting along so poorly that Mrs. Kile thought for a while of taking her to Colorado Springs. However, she is some better the last few days and may not have to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mann returned home Tuesday from a six weeks' stay at the Gayness cow ranch in the hills. They had a fine time and left the other campers in that part preparing to return soon and get ready for the beginning of school. Mr. and
